

Gabriele Filkauskas

Global Policy Leader, Roche Pharmaceuticals

Gabriele Filkauskas is Global Policy Leader, Roche Pharmaceuticals.

Gabriele joined Roche in 2010 where she developed expertise in the areas of health policy, market access, patient partnership and product management across different disease areas. She has worked in Brazil, Germany and, for the last 4 years, at the global headquarters in Basel, Switzerland.

As a strong believer in the power of partnerships, she collaborates with global stakeholders and local Roche teams to advance sustainable and equitable patient access to healthcare.

Having worked in Oncology throughout her career, she is particularly proud to lead Roche's constructive and long-lasting relationship with the UICC.

Gabriele has a B.A. in Business Administration from Insper, Brazil and an MBA from INSEAD, Singapore-France.
